BandSafe
TRAINING

Certificate of Attendance

Sarah Duffy

has attended the BandSafe training course:

Safeguarding in brass bands

Delivered by Brass Bands England and developed in partnership with the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC). Registered charity England and Wales 216401. Scotland SC037717. Jersey 384.

Aims

To enable safeguarding leaders to know where to go to for further guidance and support in the event of concerns or disclosures.

To understand the safeguarding responsibilities that bands have towards children, young people and adults, and to increase levels of competence and confidence in fulfilling these.

Objectives

By the end of the course, participants to be able to:

1. Summarise some of the legislative context of safeguarding and outline some key issues when safeguarding children and adults.
2. Describe key responsibilities regarding recruitment, safeguarding members of your organisation and delivering safe events.
3. Demonstrate how to access and use the BandSafe Online Toolkit.
4. Develop an action plan for your organisation to further develop their safeguarding work.
5. Describe the purpose and requirements of Child Performance Licensing legislation, outlining the process of application for use of the BBE BOPA.
6. Demonstrate an awareness of the emotional context of safeguarding and identify a network for personal support.

Kenneth Crookston
Chief Executive Officer, Brass Bands England

25/09/2025 (Valid for 2 years)

Date of course

Brass Bands England

In partnership with NSPCC

Supported using public funding by ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND